

Liturgy for Lenten Evening Prayers

Monday thru Saturday
Fourth Presbyterian Church, South Boston
ASH WEDNESDAY

6:00pm GATHERING MUSIC (A time for meditation)

6:10 OPENING SENTENCES

My soul waits for the Lord,
more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning.

Call: From parched places I have cried to You.

Response: O Lord, hear my voice.

Call: With my whole heart I want to praise
You.

Response: O Lord, hear my voice.

Call: If you, Lord, should mark iniquities:

Response: Who could stand? who could stand?

I will wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in God's Presence do I hope.

EXPRESSIONS OF FAITH (standing and in unison)

Lord, You have always given bread for the coming day;
and though I am poor, today I believe.

Lord, You have always given strength for the coming day;
and though I am weak, today I believe.

Lord, You have always given peace for the coming day;
and though of anxious heart, today I believe.

Lord, You have always kept me safe in trials;
and now, tried as I am, today I believe.

Lord, You have always marked the road for the coming day and though it may be hidden, today I believe.

Lord, You have always lightened this darkness of mine;
and though the night is here, today I believe.

HYMN Lord, I Want to be a Christian in my heart...
2. ... more loving... 3. ...like Jesus.... 4. more holy...

As you have made this day, O God, you also make the night.
Give light for our comfort. come upon us with quietness and still our souls, that we may listen for the whisper of Your 'spirit and be attentive to your nearness in our dreams.
Empower us to rise again in new life to proclaim your praise,
and show Christ to the world, for he reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

BENEDICTION & PASSING OF THE PEACE

A Blessing

See that ye be at peace among yourselves, my children, and love one another.

Follow the example of good men and women of old and God will comfort you and help you,
both in this world
and in the world which is to come.
